CUNYPLUS – ONLINE CATALOG

•DPAC - book catalog, search can be limited to a certain CUNY college (e.g., “set cat qc” searches Queens College only), or all colleges together (“set cat all”). The default is York College.

•NEWC - current newspaper articles 1996-present

•NEWB - back issue newspaper articles 1989-1995

•DPER - magazine and journal index 1983-present

[Also available are some specialized indexes, e.g., MEDLINE, ERIC, etc.]

Note:

(1) Please consult with CUNY+ user guide for search methods.

(2) There is a Web-based CUNY+ at: <http://libraries.cuny.edu>

INFOTRAC & OTHER LICENSED RESOURCES

InfoTrac-SearchBank is an article database. Contents are more current than that of DPER. In H Wing. InfoTrac can be accessed via Web terminals by entering CUNY Libraries homepage at: <http://libraries.cuny.edu>

Also available at CUNY Libraries homepage are American Chemical Society, Britannica Online, Current Contents Connect, Ethnic Newswatch, NOAH Community Health, Lexis-Nexis, and many other features.

INTERNET

Available in G Wing only, all the Web terminals have Internet access. While the five terminals near reference desk have limited access (sites are pre-selected by the library), others have full access.

WORD PROCESSING

•H-Wing: in computer lab WordPerfect and MS Word are available.

•G-Wing: in 8 PCs, 4 of them are connected with laser printers, WordPerfect 6.1, WordPerfect 7.0, and Microsoft Word 97 are available. In order to print from those laser printers one must use either WordPerfect 6.1 or MS Word 97. If a document was written in WordPerfect 7.0, one must convert it to 6.1 to make it printable. Instruction on how to convert is posted near the computers.

HELP

If you need assistance in using the library and its resources, please ask reference librarian at the reference desk. We are here to help you!
