English Major Requirements

- (a) One course in British Literature
ENG 328, 333, 343, 344, 345
- (b) One course in American Literature
ENG 350, 352, 353, 355, 356
- (c) English majors choose one of three emphasis areas: Literature, Language, and Writing. Each emphasis has four course requirements.

Literature: English 311 and three other courses in Literature at the 300 level or higher.

Language: English 270 (WI), 370, 371, 375.

Writing: English 286 (WI), and three additional courses in writing in consultation with major advisor.

English 270 (WI) and 286 (WI) are permanently designated to satisfy York's lower-level writing intensive requirement.

- (d) Six elective credits may be filled by taking any 200, 300, or 400-level English courses that are not used to satisfy other major requirements.
- (e) English 410 (WI), 430 (WI), 450 (WI), 470 (WI), 480 (WI) fulfill the seminar requirement.

All seminars are permanently designated to satisfy York's upper-level writing intensive requirement.

- (f) Students must fulfill six additional credits of Minor Courses or Free Electives if they do not take the six-credit, two-course Honors Research sequence English 492 and English 493.
- (g) Note: Students are strongly encouraged to select a Minor program of study, especially those planning to attend graduate school. Consult with an academic advisor. Minor courses would replace "free electives" in the 4-year plan.
- (h) For a B.A., students must complete 90 credits of liberal arts – see Bulletin.
