Why should YOU join the 988 Lifeline network?

- There is a tremendous need for crisis counselors at the 988 Lifeline centers. In 2020, the U.S. had one death by suicide every 11 minutes. As a crisis counselor, you will learn the skills necessary to talk with individuals who are struggling, and provide productive, caring, and lifesaving support. You will have a real impact on someone's life, and as a crisis counselor, will make a true difference in how we as a nation address the mental health crisis at hand.
- As a crisis counselor, you will be part of a community of caring, kind, intelligent individuals. While 988 Lifeline centers are spread out throughout the country, this network is uniquely tightly knit, providing support and mentorship every step of the way.
- Working as a crisis counselor for the 988 Lifeline network will provide you with the tools to work in public health, social work, behavioral health, healthcare, public relations, policy work, and more! As a crisis counselor, you will learn critical communication skills that are transferrable to a wide range of other positions moving forward.

Directly apply to the 988 Lifeline centers in your state or to a remote-friendly center.
