

Thurgood Marshall College Fund MARCH 2021 SCHOLARSHIP & INTERNSHIP BROCHURE

Student Ambassador

Greetings Cardinals!

This letter arrives to you in the middle of an ongoing pandemic. I hope you and yours are continuing to stay healthy and safe. Let me begin this letter by saying—never limit yourself, prove others wrong, but most importantly, prove your yourself that you can do it! The finish line requires you to do the work.

I was so pleased with the participant turnout for the February 18th, TMCF Leadership Institute Information Session. I would like to thank our guest speaker Martin G. Martin, II, the Career Services Center, and two of our very own, Nafisa Tabassum ('21) and Jessica Guzman ('21) for making the event possible. I hope that you will apply to the Leadership Institute and experience all it has to offer. Just a reminder: The Leadership Institute deadline has been extended to Sunday, March 21, 2021, so you still have time to apply.

*IF YOU HAVE NOT DONE SO, VISIT <https://apply.tmcf.org/> AND CREATE YOUR TMCF ACCOUNT IN ORDER TO APPLY FOR TMCF LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE AND ACCESS SCHOLARSHIPS/INTERNSHIPS! IT TAKES LESS THAN 5 MINUTES.

After you have created your TMCF account, I urge you to apply for TMCF LI because the opportunities are vast. At the 4-day conference, there's a recruitment fair where Fortune 500 companies, government agencies, and other representatives offer jobs, internships, and educational opportunities. You'll receive high-quality professional development from people who are within diversity inclusion, and business executives. You'll learn how to stand out among your peers and be a part of financial literacy seminars, and much more. If you have questions about the Leadership Institute (i.e., How to apply? What documents do I need to apply? GPA requirement? What to expect at the conference?) please don't hesitate to contact me and I'd be more than happy to assist you.

The TMCF Scholarship/Internship booklet was created to provide opportunities that will impact your future. Highlight the scholarships that you are interested along with the deadlines. Here are some tips to follow on applying: Tip 1: Do not procrastinate; be organized. Tip 2: Answer all questions completely (if a scholarship/internship asks for a "maximum of 500 words," do not write 501 words). The primitive goal of writing is to write succinctly by using the most effective word(s). Tip 3: Keep it clean—proofread your writing before you submit the application; no misspellings or other grammatical errors. Get a second pair of eyes to proofread your responses. Tip 4: Submit your application ahead of time—it shows strong organizational skills. Do not wait last minute to apply for a scholarship/internship because a rushed application indicates that you don't care, you have bad time management skills, which could lead to imprudent typos on your application. This is your chance to make a positive impression.

Let me close by saying that if you are a York College student, you are eligible to apply to any of the scholarship/internship offered by the Thurgood Marshall College Fund (TMCF) if you meet the eligibility requirements. York College is a Predominantly Black Institution (PBI), and a TMCF-member school. In this booklet, there is a plethora of scholarships/internships for students of all majors and minors.

*ALL SCHOLARSHIPS AND INTERNSHIPS HAVE A SUBMISSION DEADLINE OF MONDAY, MARCH 22, 2021. CREATE AND LOG INTO YOUR TMCF ACCOUNT. Visit <https://apply.tmcf.org>. APPLY!

As always, my goal is to serve you. I hope that you feel comfortable approaching me with any questions, thoughts, or concerns you may have.

I can be reached at Shaquille.profitt@yorkmail.cuny.edu. Godspeed.
