

Federal Satisfactory Academic Progress Guidelines

Qualifying for federal aid requires that students meet several requirements. Federal guidelines require that students meet certain grade and course completion standards. The following information can assist you in planning your course schedule, deciding whether to drop a course or investigating how you can finance your education. For updated information on Satisfactory Academic Progress and the process to file a petition to waive Satisfactory Academic Progress requirements please refer to the website at www.york.cuny.edu/finaid and select Satisfactory Academic Progress.

Federal Satisfactory Academic Progress Guidelines (as of May 24, 2013)

In order to continue to receive Title IV Federal Student Assistance, an undergraduate student must have:

1. Achieved at least the GPA required for probationary status at York College

Credits Attempted	Minimum GPA
.5	1.50
13-24	1.75
25- upward	2.00

2. Attempted no more than 150% of the credits normally required for completion of the degree.
3. Accumulated (or earned) credits must be equal to or greater than a certain percentage of the total credits attempted according to the following:

Attempted Credits	15	30	45	60	75	90	105	120	135	150	165	180
Earned Credits	0	5	16	27	42	50	63	72	84	95	108	117

In order to continue to receive Title IV Federal Student Assistance, a graduate student must have:

1. Achieved at least the GPA required for good academic standing at York College
2. Attempted no more than 150% of the credits normally required for completion of the degree.
3. Accumulated credits equal to or greater than two-thirds the cumulative credits attempted.

Students will be measured against the satisfactory academic progress standard at the end of the spring term to determine eligibility for the receipt of the Title IV student financial assistance for the upcoming year. Students who fall beneath the conditional standard may petition to the Petition Committee to retain their eligibility for receipt of Title IV Federal Student Assistance. These appeals will be evaluated for mitigating.
