

Office of the President

November 2, 2012

Dear York College Alumni:

I hope that you are all safe and that you have not suffered any personal loss of family or friends. I am aware that many of you have experienced loss of power and property damage as a result of Hurricane Sandy. Please know that my thoughts are with you during this difficult time.

York College is sheltering more than 800 evacuee guests on our campus. While our administrative offices opened on Thursday, the shelter operation continues. We thought you might like to see the following article from CUNY about the campuses, including York, that are housing evacuees.

We hope that you are proud of York as we are still working in the face of this unexpected adversity. We hope to resume classes next week to continue to provide a quality education to our students.

Wishing you well during the storm recovery.

Sincerely,

Marcia V. Keizs
President
