

York College/CUNY Scholarships

2006/2007

Dr. Marcia V. Keizs
President

Dr. Janis W. Jones
Acting Vice President, Student Development

October 17, 2006

Dear Students:

I am pleased to share the fall edition of the 2006-2007 Scholarships and Awards booklet with you. I urge you to take advantage of the numerous scholarships, grants and awards that are made available each year by the York College Auxiliary Enterprises, the York College Foundation, friends of York College, the York College Alumni Association Inc., as well as by government, non-profit agencies, and private organizations.

In the past, many York College students have successfully availed themselves of these financial opportunities. This year I hope to announce many more of your names among our scholarship recipients.

Further information and applications for selected scholarships are available in the Office of Student Activities, Room 1E01. Additional copies of this publication are available in the Library, the Office of Academic Affairs, the Financial Aid Office, Admissions, and the Office of Student Activities.

Good luck in your academic endeavors, and I hope that this booklet assists you in pursuing your dreams at York.

Sincerely,

Marcia V. Keizs
President

SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION

NAME OF SCHOLARSHIP: Morris K. Udall Undergraduate Scholarships

VALUE OF SCHOLARSHIP: Six (6) scholarships of up to $5,000 and honorable mentions on the basis of merit to sophomore and junior level college students.

DESCRIPTION:

The Udall Foundation seeks future leaders across a wide spectrum of environmental fields, including policy, engineering, science, education, urban planning and renewal, business, health, justice, and economics. The Foundation also seeks future Native American and Alaska Native leaders in public and community health care, tribal government, and public policy affecting Native American communities, including land and resource management, economic development, and education.

Scholarships are offered in any of three categories:

- To students who have demonstrated commitment to careers related to the environment; or
- To Native American and Alaska Native students who have demonstrated commitment to careers related to tribal public policy; or
- To Native American and Alaska Native students who have demonstrated commitment to careers related to Native health care.

See: <http://www.udall.gov/udall.asp?link=200>

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA:

- Be a matriculated sophomore or junior-level student at a two-year or four-year institution of higher education, pursuing a bachelor's or associate's degree during the 2006-2007 academic year. "Sophomore" is defined as a student who intends at least two more years of full-time undergraduate study beginning in fall 2007. "Junior" is defined as a student who intends at least one more year of full-time undergraduate study beginning in fall 2007. (Students may apply for funding in both their sophomore and junior years; 3rd time applicants, however, will not be eligible.)
- Be committed to a career related to the environment, OR committed to a career in tribal public policy OR Native American health care (only Native Americans and Alaska Natives* are eligible to apply in tribal public policy or Native American health care). Native American students studying tribal public policy or native health do not need to demonstrate commitment to the environment. Likewise, students pursuing environmentally related careers do not need to be Native American, nor do they need to demonstrate commitment to tribal public policy or Native health.
- Have a college grade-point average of at least a "B" or the equivalent.
- Be pursuing full-time study during the 2007-2008 academic year.
- Be a U.S. citizen, U.S. national, or U.S. permanent resident.
