

Curriculum Map: Program Name

Date:

#	Program Goals (PGs) & Program Student Learning Outcomes (PSLOs)	Required Courses			Foundation Courses								Core Courses							Program Electives
					ANTH 101									ANTH 152	ANTH 220	ANTH 243	ANTH 302							ANTH 303	ANTH 393	ANTH 490
PG1	To evaluate observed behavior and develop a valid analysis through ethnographic writing
PSLO 1.1	Through ethnographic field research, students will have to evaluate observed behavior and develop a valid research analysis				I									R	R	R	R									M	M
PSLO 1.2	Describe the role that race, ethnicity, class, gender, language, sexual orientation, belief, or other forms of social differentiation play in world				I									R	R	R	R									M	M
PSLO 1.3
PG 2	To understand the basic aspects of the structure of all human societies and the purpose of culture in human adaptation
PSLO 2.1	Describe different structures of human societies				I									R	R	R	R									M	M
PSLO 2.2	Describe different cultural characteristics				I									R	R	R	R									M	M
PSLO 2.3
PG 3	To understand the key methods of Anthropology
PSLO 3.1	Demonstrate ability to use discipline-specific methods with qualitative data				I									R	R	R	R									M	M
PSLO 3.2	Demonstrate ability to use discipline-specific methods with quantitative data				I									R	R	R	R									M	M

Scale: I-Introduced; R-Reinforced; M-Mastered